Camp Ovens and Accessories

Australia's most consistent campoven, they're easy to use, suit all environments from your backyard to the bush wherever you want to cook up a feed.

BushKing

This big 12.5 litre oven with a tight sealing lid and tough light weight design will cook 2kg of solid meat perfectly in 2 hours. No mucking about! Add a "veggie ring" and the whole camp will be fed a roast and veg from one pot.

Designed to work with a variety of fuel sources including campfire coals, heat beads and Hillbilly's purpose designed range of LP Gas equipment.

BushRanger

The little cousin. A delight to pack for any 4x4 trek where space is a premium. Delivers the same excellent cooking style as the King and yet takes little space.

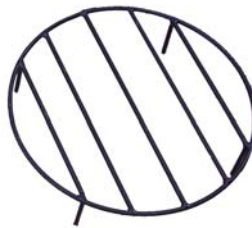

Gas Conversion

The Hillbilly gas conversion makes your cooking system completely independent of firewood availability and free to use in National Parks.

Accessories

There's also a range of items to enhance the campovens cooking ability.

Pot Stand

Locates on the lid of the oven to use heat from the coals for frypan or saucepan cooking while roasting.

Oven Trivet

Sits in the base of the oven and provides fat free cooking for roasts and forms an ideal platform for baking bread.

Veggie Ring

Sits in the top of the oven for cooking delicious roast vegies and deserts

Spun Black Steel Frypans and Woks

The new folding handle frypans make packing your bush cooking gear easier than ever. There's a size to suit families and large groups.

And more traditional designs from the rounded base skillet for omlettes to the giant size group model.
